PICTURE OF THE WEEK

THEME OF THE MONTH: All About Me

This week our “little Springdaliens” wowed us with their persistent participation and involvement in all the activities planned for the ongoing theme.

This week our tiny tots were introduced to the topic “My Family” wherein the children loved talking about the members of their family. The ‘Show and Tell’ involving family pictures and speaking about their favorite activity with the family members was the highlight of the week. The children shared their experiences and listened to each other with great interest. It was indeed a treat to watch and listen to them.

Our pre schoolers had fun with hands-on art/craft activities and creating their family photo frame with different art materials was something which kept them engrossed and enthralled. Making their own finger puppets and singing family song made the concept all the more clear. Pretending like family members helped in building confidence and creative communication.

Overall it was a great week of fun filled activities which took learning and understanding of the theme to the next level for our super learners.
